NuLegacy Engages Corporate Communications Consultant

March 14, 2016 - Reno, NV - NuLegacy Gold Corporation has engaged Mr. F. Lagiglia of Vancouver as an independent consultant to provide corporate communications and public awareness services.

The services will include but are not limited to communicating with industry analysts, institutions and brokerages in Europe and providing input on corporate presentations and other public materials for a fee of $5,000 per month. The engagement is for a term of six months, subject to renewal, and will be funded out of the Company's general working capital. Either party may terminate the engagement upon 30 days notice. The Consultant has also been granted options to purchase 150,000 shares of the Company at a price of $0.15 per share for a period of up to five years.

Mr. Lagiglia has held senior investor relations roles and created the investor relations strategy with several publicly traded companies with a focus on mining which include production stage companies such as China Gold International Resources, and numerous exploration companies.
