To our Friends, Family and NuLegacy Shareholders/Stakeholders

Hi Folks,

While the gold sector struggles we are fortunate to be able to continue to advance your project, having attracted a $3.5 million financing (from Waterton Global) in August of this year.

Drilling continues on the Iceberg and assay results of the first of the completed core holes are expected early next week.

As well we continue to expand our outreach to new shareholders with interviews such as that of your CEO, James Anderson.

All the best,

Albert
