

NuLegacy Gold Commences Drilling the Iceberg

May 8, 2014

Dear Friends, Family and NuLegacy shareholders/stakeholders,

As scheduled the drilling on the Iceberg gold deposit commenced yesterday.

If you don't have time to review either of the items below at the very least you should follow this link to review the new slide 8 of our updated PowerPoint presentation!

Within the today's news release there is a link to an entirely new set of slides called 'Plan Maps & Sections through the Iceberg Gold Deposit' on the Iceberg presentations page.

To keep this short and sweet I haven't reproduced the news release here; you can link to it at today's News.

Have a great day,

Albert

Albert J. Matter | Executive Chairman, Director
